The Board of Directors and Clubhouse Staff hope that your celebrations are enthusiastic and safe and that the New Year fulfills your every wish. The Clubhouse will be closed on New Year's Day.

FLOORING & INTERIOR PAINTING PROJECTS

These projects will take place at some point in February, March or April. We do not have definite dates for the work. Because of this work, there will be times during those months when the Exercise Room and the Pool will be closed and we may also need to close the Clubhouse completely for a number of days. Very sorry for the inconvenience but the result will be well worth it. If we have your email, we'll send you updates.

HOLIDAY PARTIES

The Holiday Open House was a huge, joyful, gala event at the beautifully decorated Clubhouse. Special thanks to Resident neighbors who helped share the Holiday cheer while enjoying an elegant array of hors d'oeuvres, a carving meat station and a scrumptious sweet table. The party was only the beginning of celebrating the Holiday Season.

Congratulations to Lori Khoury, Linda Jacobson, Tom Holsing and Joanne Marianos for winning gift certificates to Jamesons. Thank you to Barbara Maring and Robert Kulefsky for donating two tickets and valet parking for a concert in Elgin. Nandita Pinisetti won those tickets.

An Open House with Santa was held for all Resident Children and their guests in a warm and inviting environment. Parents said they will no longer fight the crowds in a busy, noisy mall to take their child's picture with Santa. A very special "thank you" to Kathy Maykut from Re/Max All Pro, who took the pictures of the children and families as they smiled with Santa. Kathy then printed all the pictures. Children and their families relaxed and enjoyed snacks as they visited with family and neighborhood friends and created a Holiday craft with the help of Dorothy Jaskey. Thank you very much to Shawn Rodgers and Mike Novinski for helping Santa make this a memorable Holiday Season at Bloomfield Club, bringing Christmas cheer to all who attended.
